*Come to the table of mercy,
prepared with the wine and the bread.*

*All who are hungry and thirsty,
come, and your souls will be fed.*

*Come at the Lord's invitation;
receive from his nail-scarred hand.*

*Eat of the bread of salvation;
drink of the blood of the Lamb. –Evangelical Lutheran Worship Hymn
#481*

In the weeks that follow Easter Sunday, we hear so many stories in the Gospels about people encountering the risen Christ.

--This includes the disciples on the road to Emmaus. The group that gathered for Wednesday night worship after the April Community Meal heard this from Luke chapter 24:

<sup>32</sup>They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' <sup>33</sup>That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. <sup>34</sup>They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' <sup>35</sup>Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread."

In their encounter with Jesus, his presence is revealed to them as he teaches them and breaks bread with them.

We surely encounter Christ's presence in similar ways:

-when we gather around the word, which we hear in scripture, sermon, song, creed, and prayer.

See page 2

-when we gather around the table to share this same meal, where Christ gives himself to us and we hear these powerful words, “given for you” and “shed for you.”

These encounters around word and sacrament are at the very center of our faith, and the life of the church.

In these Easter weeks leading up to Pentecost, we can especially notice them as places where we encounter the risen Christ.

Alleluia,

Pastor Mathew

From the Council President

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Warm days, a bunch of them in a row, longer days and a few showers – flowers and trees are blooming. Different shades of green appear as leaves join the spring celebration. Weekly grass cutting, cars covered in pollen are relegated to necessary evils as the bursts of color: white, pink, purple and red delight the senses.

The glow of the Easter season – Holy week, the resurrection of our Lord, flowers and palms still decorating the Chancel, white paraments, chants of Alleluia- are just starting to dim. And then Martha and the Adult Choir present Handel’s Easter Messiah: A Cantata, including the Alleluia Chorus! What an amazing performance of music and voices. We are so blessed to have such talented people share their gifts with us.

There is a lot happening at St. John’s: see the weekly bulletins, Weekend News and this Newsletter for details.

Finally, the Spring Congregation Meeting is Sunday, April 28th after worship. We have several items of business to attend to, then it’s an open meeting where any appropriate items can be brought to the floor. Please join us.

Peace and Blessings,

Lee Smith, Council President 2024

Notes from the Organ Bench

It's hard to believe that May is here and the music groups at St. John's are beginning to work on the final pieces of music before a well-deserved summer break. The Handbell choir played a wonderful piece on Easter and the Adult choir wonderfully presented We Remember Calvary on Good Friday followed by selections from the Easter portion of Handel's Messiah two weeks later. Many, many thanks to the choir members for their dedication to learning and presenting these pieces with confidence. Many thanks also to the members of the congregation and other family members who joined them for the service. I was thrilled beyond words.

As we begin to end the "singing" season, I am beginning to focus on the musical opportunities the summer offers. The Primary Music Campette for students who completed K – grade 2 will be held July 29-31, 9 a.m. – 12 p.m. Campers will be engaged in singing, moving, and creating instruments. The camp will conclude with a picnic and performance "Under the Stars."

The Musical Camp for students who have completed grades 3 – 8 will be held August 12-16, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. Campers will be engaged in every aspect of creating a musical including singing, acting, sound creation and scenery making. The week will end on Friday with their musical performance at 7 pm.

Registration forms are available on the website.

As you read this, I will be enjoying some time in Germany visiting some of my husband's Requardt cousins. While I am away, please keep Making a joyful noise!

Martha Requardt

Dear St. John's family,

Thank you very much for all of your expressions of comfort and support as we grieve our miscarriage. We deeply appreciate your words and acts of kindness for us, and we treasure all of your prayers.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Amy, Pastor Mathew & Simon

Notes regarding the Prayer List:

If you would like to add someone to the Prayer List, please call the church office at 410-665-1234 or email office@stjohnsparkville.org.

The friends and family prayer list has been growing considerably. Since members of the church place their loved ones on the list and we don't typically know the status of their illness, we don't know when they are well enough to be removed. Please look over the prayer list and if there is someone who is doing well, please contact the church office and ask to have them removed.
